SUBJECT: SOUTH KOREAN PARLIAMENT APPROVES EXTENSION OF TROOPS IN IRAQ

¶1. (SBU) SUMMARY: As the ROKG proposed on December 22, 2006, the National Assembly approved a bill to extend, but reduce, ROK troop presence in Iraq. The number of troops stationed in Erbil will be reduced from 2300 to 1200 by the end of April 2007. According to the Ministry of National Defense (MND), Office of Overseas Troop Dispatch, approximately 1100 troops will return to Korea and about 650 troops will be dispatched by March 5, 2007. A second troop rotation of a similar size is scheduled for late April 2007. According to the enacted proposal, the reduced unit will remain in Erbil until December 2007, focusing on reconstruction efforts. The bill also called for a plan to "successfully conclude" the Zaytun unit's mission within 2007. 114 out of 190 lawmakers approved the bill, while 60 opposed and 16 abstained. See para 2 for the full text of the enacted legislation. END SUMMARY.
